8.3 If delivery is delayed due to any acts or omissions of Buyer, or if having been notified that the Products are ready for dispatch, Buyer fails to take delivery or provide adequate shipping instructions, Supplier shall be entitled to place the Products into a suitable store at Buyer's expense. Upon placing the Products into the store, delivery shall be deemed to be complete, risk in the Products shall pass to Buyer and Buyer shall pay Supplier accordingly.

9.2 Any claims and rights based on defects shall become time-barred (including for assertion of hidden defects) after the expiry of 12 (twelve) months since taking into operation of the Goods or, if services are delivered, the taking into operation of the object the service has been performed upon; or 18 (eighteen) months since delivery, whichever occurs first. 9.3 Supplier may rectify any defect if, upon passing the risk, the Products or Services do not have the warranted quality. Supplier warrants to provide subsequent performance by either, at its option, repairing or replacing the concerned parts (subsequent rectification) or by replacing the Products or Services by such Products or Services which are free from defects (subsequent delivery).

9.4 Supplier may rectify any defect several times and may decide at its discretion to change from rectification to subsequent delivery. Supplier shall be responsible for all costs incurred in connection with its subsequent performance, especially the transport, shipping, labor and material cost, unless such costs are incurred as a result of the Products being taken to a place other than the place of performance.

9.5 Supplier assumes no warranty for used Products, normal wear and tear, material provided by Buyer, any repair or replacement, modification or alteration of the Goods by Buyer itself or any third parties, damage due to improper storage, installation or operation, insufficient security, deviant operating conditions, or due to inadequate maintenance, use of inadequate operational materials, or damage resulting from any modification or repair not approved beforehand by Supplier in writing or other similar circumstances. Supplier shall not be liable where any non-authorized software or non-authorized spare or replacement parts are used. Any costs incurred by Supplier for examining and removing such defects shall be borne by Buyer upon Supplier's demand. Buyer shall always be solely responsible for the completeness and correctness of any information provided by it.

9.6 Any remedied Goods (either by repair or by replacement) shall be subject to further warranty for the remainder of the original warranty period.

Upon Supplier's request, Buyer shall be obliged to send the Goods to Supplier. Replaced Goods shall be sent back to Supplier at Buyer's cost. Supplier shall recover ownership on any such replaced Goods.

9.11 The only remedy for defects in Products and Services is as set out herein. Buyer shall not have any further remedy, warranty claims or any additional rights and any such remedy, rights and claims are hereby expressly excluded, including without limitation damage claims for non-fulfilment or non-contractual performance by the Supplier, except in case of Supplier's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

10. RETENTION OF TITLE, RETURN OF TOOLING

10.1 Subject to this Clause 10 and Clause 12 and notwithstanding the delivery and the passing of risk in

Until full payment has been issued (i) the Buyer shall hold the Deliverables as the Supplier's fiduciary agent, and shall keep the Deliverables properly stored, protected and insured and (ii) shall immediately notify the Supplier of any (official) action undertaken against the Deliverables.

10.2 Any and all references to Software as part of the Deliverables shall only be deemed to mean a license as granted in Clause 12.2, and nothing set forth in these GTC and the Supplier's quotation or performance shall be construed to grant to Buyer any title, right, assignment or interest to any intellectual property rights whatsoever.

10.3 In case the Deliverables contain any tooling, which incorporates Supplier's specific know-know and/or company secrets, the tooling and any description and documentation thereof shall remain with Supplier until complete destruction and Buyer has no right to inspect and to return the tooling after termination or expiration of the Contract.

The liability of the Supplier for indirect and consequential damages, including but not limited to loss of profit, loss of production and other mere financial or unforeseeable losses shall be excluded. The limitation of liability shall not apply, insofar as this contradicts mandatory law, in case of intent and gross negligence. Furthermore, it shall not apply to defects that were fraudulently concealed or in the event of culpable injury to life, limb or health. Claims under the Product Liability Act shall remain unaffected.

12. SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION

12.1 Title to and ownership of the copyrights in software and/or firmware incorporated into or provided for use with the Deliverables ("Software") and documentation supplied with the Deliverables ("Documentation") shall remain with the relevant

13.2 To the extent that such Force Majeure causes Supplier to reduce or suspend its performance, Supplier shall not be subject to any liability for delay or non-delivery and the time for performance shall be extended for as many Days beyond the date thereof as are required to obtain the removal of such causes, plus an additional reasonable time period for restart of supplier's operations and the performance. Supplier may also, during any period of shortage due to any event of Force Majeure at the request of Buyer, obtain substitute raw material(s) or component part(s) at the then prevailing market price, which price shall be passed through and paid by Buyer.

13.3 The Party claiming Force Majeure shall give notice in writing as soon as possible both after the occurrence of the Force Majeure and after the end of the Force Majeure event.

13.4 Buyer shall be obliged to pay for the part of the performance that Supplier delivered, and all of Supplier's Contract-related costs and expenses incurred or having become inevitable, prior to the Force Majeure event.

14. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENTS

14.2 Buyer warrants that any design or instruction given by it shall not cause Supplier to infringe any intellectual property rights in the performance of Supplier's obligations under the Contract and shall indemnify Supplier against all reasonable costs and damages which Supplier may incur as a result of any breach of such warranty.

15. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

16.3 Buyer agrees furthermore that it shall not engage in any activity that would expose Supplier or any Supplier Affiliates to a risk of penalties under laws and regulations of any relevant jurisdiction prohibiting improper payments, including but not limited to bribes, to officials of any government or of any agency, instrumentality or political subdivision thereof, to political parties, or political party officials or candidates for public office, or to any employee of any customer or supplier.

16.4 Buyer agrees to comply with applicable statutory health, environmental, safety, security, ethics, compliance laws and other mandatory requirements and shall hold Supplier harmless from any damage arising due to non-compliance with the above.

16.5 Notwithstanding any other provisions hereunder, national data protection laws and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) EU 2016/679 as amended shall apply and be adhered to by both Parties.
